

You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength.

Mark 12:30

Music for the Pastoral Care Ministry School was selected with several objectives in mind:

1. Let all things be done to God's glory. Soli Deo Gloria!
2. Music should be centered on the Lord. (Vertical).
3. Any exceptions to item 2 should be in the form of a sung prayer of petition, avoiding any "I" or "me" centered, introspective songs. (Horizontal).
4. All music should be theologically sound.
5. Lyrics should be used to reinforce the lecture material.

Given the criteria, it seemed the classic hymns, many celebrating the Trinity, would most readily compliment the occasion of a healing prayer conference. Because of the many church backgrounds and experiences of the PCM attendees, we wanted to be sensitive to those who may have little or no exposure to church hymnody, or perhaps attend churches where only contemporary music is used, by including some carefully selected contemporary music. This music was subject to the same criteria as hymns. Our prayer was that our choices would not hinder worship for anyone.

"Let not those who wait for You, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed because of me; Let not those who seek You be confounded because of me, O God of Israel."

Psalm 69:6

In the interest of reinforcing the lecture materials, much research was undertaken to locate additional, deleted, or alternate verses to standard hymns. Two resources which proved invaluable are:

Hymns Ancient and Modern, New Standard

The Canterbury Press, Norwich

ISBN: 0 907547 37 0

The New English Hymnal

The Canterbury Press, Norwich

ISBN: 0 907547 51 6

These hymnals, published in England, not only contained some wonderful alternate hymn tunes, but also extra verses not typically found in American hymnals. Both hymnals are available from Amazon.com.

Another great resource was the hymnal collection at Buswell Memorial Library, Wheaton College, Wheaton, IL. Your local library may have similar resources.

For copyright licensing, we chose OneLicense.net, a service similar to Christian Copyright Licensing International (CCLI), except specializing in hymnals. Since the PCM would rely heavily on hymns, this seemed to be the best choice.

The result of this compilation could be called a PCM Hymnal, although it has not been published. Currently, it resides in several large binders. (Any interested publishers or agents out there?) There are, of course, many more selections than could be used during a one-week conference. Music that was used is listed below:
